Breaking Roads on the Sierras.

[Truckee Republican of To-day.] No one unacquainted with the ter rors of a mountain storm can underrecent storm to break a road to Truckee present year. The first day they only succeeded in going two miles and a half. For a distance of several hundred yards they were compelled to shovel out drifts seven and eight feet in depth. The snow was so light that horses could not materially assist in beating the way. Night coming on they were obliged to camp in the snow. They obliged to camp in the snow. had neither provisions nor bedding, as they had calculated to reach Truckee that night. Mr Burton passed them during the day, on snow-shoes, carrying the mail to Tabee. At midnight he returned, bringing them food. Five men passed the night in the drifts, pretected from the cold by only a single blanket. The next day the party reached Truckee. The men were completely exhausted from their terrible trip, but they had the satisfaction of knowing that the road was broken from Truckee to Tahee.

Judge Lynch.

CINCINNATI, March 16 .- There has been considerable excitement at Newport, Ky .. all day to-day, caused by the arrest of Peter Klein, a tramp, who outraged Mrs. Truesdal a few days since. A crowd has been in the neighborhood of the jail all day, but no demenstration was made until after 6 o'clock, when about twenty-five men marched to the Monmouth street jail, overpowered the jailer, knocked down two policemen and the mayor, and secured Klein, and marched off. He was taken to Mrs. Truesdal's house and identified by her and then to the woods GROCERIES, HARDWARE, and hanged.

CINCINNATI, March 18.— The body of Klein, who was lynched back of Newport last Sunday night, was left hanging until it was frozen stiff. The coroner went after it early yesterday morning, but it had disappeared, and is supposed to have been stolen by parties in the employ of the medical college of this city. There are wines, rumors that the Kentuckey authorities will prosecute the lynchers, who made no great effort to disguise themselves.

The following significant expression of Southern Democratic sentiment, printed in the Okolona (Miss.) States of March 12th, has just been received, and attracts much attention here: "Thank God! we have captured the apitel, and in 1880 our man will walk up the White House steps and take his seat in the presidential chair. Then will we preceed to tear your amendments from the constitution and trample them in the mire. Then will we break the shackles you have formed for the free, sovereign commonwealths of the Union. Then will we recognize the right of secession -a right that is not dead but sleeping. Then will we decorate the capital with the pictures of Davis, and Lee, and Stuart, and all of the glorious cause that is not lost, but living still. Yes, and thank God, we have captured the capitol, and from that coigne as a vantage we propose to rule the Republic in a way that will make your radical leaders forever odious in America.

Close to Hell.

READING, Pa., Mar. 18 .- It com menced raining here last Sunday night and continued until yesterday. All ever the city can be noticed a strange yellowish deposit resembling sulphur, supposed to have come down with the rain.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Mar. 18 .- There was found yesterday morning beneath the snow which fell last Sunday night a substance, in some places half an inch deep, strongly resembling sulphur. It has the color and smell and a quantity of it scraped together and set on fire burned as readily and emmitted the same fumes as sulphur.

In Helena, Alabama, they made the Sabbath cheerful by a riot, a fight between a white man and negro being the provocation. In the emergency the governor ordered out the Birmi ingham rifles, who did such good service that at latest accounts all was quiet. It is seldom that a disturbance in the South is so speedily quelled, and our admiration of the energy and heroism of the Birmingham rifles is therefore great. It must be remarkable organization, perhaps as formidible as the Petaluma rangers or as awe-inspiring as the Farley guard.— S; F. Exchange.

Bayard Taylor's Funeral.

KENNET SQUARE, Pa., March 15 .-Business is entirely suspended out of respect to the memory of Bayard Taylor. Many houses are draped in mourning. Governor Hoyt and the joint committee of the state legislature arrived early, also the grand cherus from adjoining towns. At Cedar Croft private burial service was held, the parents of Mr. Taylor being too infirm to attend the regular cere monies. The funeral procession then started for Longwood, where the re-mains of Mr. Taylor were interred.

Horsewhipped.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Mar. 17 .- Patrick Kenney, the wood dealer, who failed some months ago, was savagely horsewhipped on Market square Sat-urday afternoon by a theatrical we-Nos. 101 & 103 Montgomery St man, Ninan Duclos, who claims to be a heavy creditor.

Twenty rooms either North er South. could be rented for two hundred dollars a month to clerks and men busy about the streets The second would be worth twice as much for offices and the lower floor could be used for stores. Down the east side of Virginia street the outlook is melancholy; men with lots refuse to sell to people with means to build, but prefer to put up pine shanties that will pay for themselves inside of six months. These houses increase the rate of insurance for all sround them and multiply the danger of fire by several hundred. Fireproof buildings that would escape in a light or distant fire will not be able to withstand the heat of a pile of burning pine houses right in centre of the tewn. We sincerely hope to be able to record the replacing of these houses with good solid stone or brick very soon. Johnny Quinn sets a good example. He will have as near a fire proof building as one can be made, and we will take a wager that it will be a credit to him and Reno! On Commercial Row the chances for improvement are great. So many old walls will be used that no great change can be made however. Mr. Lake owns a fine corner where the International steed. We will publish to-morrow a communication from Dr. Dawson, the superintendent of public instruction on the subject of the new school building. The public schools are very much crowded, and although the public feels very poor just now, yet it seems very necessary that more room should be provided for our little ones. At present they are very uncomfortable and they can hardly be expected to make very good use of the precious hours of childhood. A tax of one quarter of one per cent. will have to be levied by the com missioners to provide for the sinking fund.

The hungry applicants for place are horrified to find that under the rules and standing orders of the senate, none of the present employees Will be open and ready for busi can be removed except with the consent of Vice President Wheeler.
